

Name: _____

Date: _____

Globalization - Planet Money Makes a T-Shirt

<https://apps.npr.org/tshirt/#/title>

This is using the video portion of the website, not the text.

A. Introduction

1. Main Idea - What is the basic premise of this video? What is it going to be about?

B. Cotton

2. Location - Where is this section located?

3. Significant Details - Who exports more cotton than any other place in the world?

4. Change Over Time - What type of labor allowed America to maintain its cotton dominance? What is providing the labor now?

5. Significant Details - Why do they change the cotton seed's DNA?

6. Significant Details - What percentage of American cotton is genetically modified?

7. Significant Details - How many t-shirts could the cotton from this one farm produce?

8. Reflect - 2+ sentences - Feel free to use these questions to guide you: What are your thoughts on this section? What was important? Did you learn anything? What did you know going into this video that it confirmed?

C. Machines

9. Reflection - 2+ sentences, focusing on: How much of this process were you familiar with? How do you feel about being so far removed from creating our own clothes?

D. People

9. Location - Where was the men's t-shirt made?

10. Look Up - Spend a few minutes researching your answer to #9. Write at least 3 interesting facts about the country.

11. Identity - What's the name of the girl who they are interviewing for the men's t-shirt?

12. Location - Where was the women's t-shirt made?

13. Look Up - Spend a few minutes researching your answer to #12. Write at least 3 interesting facts about the country.

14. Identity - What's the name of the girl who they are interviewing for the women's t-shirt?

15. Significant Details - About how much money does Jasmine make each month?

16. Change Over Time - Is Bangladesh's garment industry growing or shrinking? How can you tell?

17. Reasoning - Why do people like Jasmine work in the garment industry?

18. Significant Details - What happened in April 2013?

19. Comparison - How much more money does Doris make over Jasmine?

20. Evaluation - Why is the garment industry a good thing in Bangladesh?

21. Evaluation - Why is the garment industry a bad thing in Bangladesh?

22. Reflect - 2+ sentences - Feel free to use these questions to guide you: What are your thoughts on this section? What was important? Did you learn anything? What did you know going into this video that it confirmed?

E. Boxes

23. Compare - How much does each part of the journey cost?

I) Raw Materials =

II) Print the design =

III) Ship the shirt internationally =

IV) Ship the shirt to the customer's home =

24. Inference - Which of the 4 steps from #23 is the cheapest? Why do you think that is?

F. Conclusion - Extra Credit

Option A) Make an infographic that shows where the t-shirts travelled throughout the world (include a map)

or

Option B) Write a 7+ sentence summary / reflection on the whole process. Who is being helped? Who is being hurt? What voices were left out of this documentary?